3. Example of the right and the wrong conversation:

a) How may you promote the project?

I have a proposal for you to join an international project in which you can become a token holder of a company in the United Arab Emirates. By making an investment, you will acquire tokens and obtain the status of a token holder. A token holder is a person who has the right to participate in the profits achieved by the company, something like a dividend and a shareholder. The whitepaper is a compilation of the most important information about the project, read it carefully. If you are interested in an investment, register on the platform, if you have a problem, I will help you in this regard, but you have to do the registration by yourself. You may be interested in the company's affiliate program, but remember that you don't have to invite anyone or do anything like that.

b) How you can't promote the project?

I have a proposal for you to join the Polish project in which you can become a shareholder of the Polish company SelfMaker. By making an investment, you will acquire tokens as securities, which are the equivalent of shareholders / shares in this company. The investment is safe and risk-free, for sure. Whitepaper is an issue prospectus, but you don't even need to read it, I'll summarize the most important things for you. The best thing to do is to register an account on the platform, you will give me money in cash, and then I will buy tokens for you. If you like it, we will organize another meeting for other investors, and if they invest, you will get a commission. It's worth inviting new people to the project, that's all you really have to do, then you'll get a commission just for inviting someone.

IV. Risks:

The risks associated with investing on the platform are described in the whitepaper in paragraph 12 located at:
